Funds from the IMF

*34. SHRI SURESH PACHOURI: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state

(a) whether India's decision to opt out of special trust funds of the International Monetary Fund will not affect its eligibility for other funds granted by the Washington based organization;

(b) whether India's decision not to avail of its share of $ 2.7 billion Special Drawing Rights will not have any impact on its share of other IMF funds;

(c) if so, what were the main reasons for India not availing of the special funds;

(d) to what extent it will affect India's Plans; and

(e) whether any alternative measures in regard to Plans that were being finalised from SDR funds have been found out?

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE (SHRI VISHWANATH PRATAP SINGH): (a) India has decided to opt out of the reflows to the Trust Fund during the period 1985—91. The Resolution of the Interim Committee of the IMF specifically states that this "would not adversely affect the availability of cancessional development finance for low income countries not utilising the Trust Fund reflows".

(b) The total amount of Trust Fund Reflows is estimated at SDR 2.7 billion. Our decision not to avail of these Trust Fund Reflows during the period 1985—91 will not have any impact on our right to use IMF funds under other fund facilities.

(c) to (e) Do not arise.

Dumping of Surplus EEC Butter in the Indian Market by Multinationals

*35. SHRI SURESH KALMADI:

SHRI J. P. GOYAL:

Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Goernment's attention has been drawn to a news item which appeared in the 'Indian Express' of the 26th October, 1985 to the effect that some multinationals are working out a scheme to dump surplus butter from European Economic Community in the Indian market;

(b) whether it is fact that pressure is being exercised through the Indian Embassy in Belgium on the Commerce Minister for the import of huge quantity of EEC butter;

(c) whether this would deal a severe blow to India's progress in achieving its object towards white revolution; and

(d) if so what is Government's reaction thereto?

THE MINISTER OF COMMERCE (SHRI ARJUN SINGH): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) No, Sir.

(c) and (d) The matter is under consideration of Government and no final decision has yet been taken.

Black Money Unearthed in Gujarat

*36. SHRI VITHALBHAI MOTIRAM PATEL: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) how many raids have been conducted for unearthing black money in Gujarat during the last one year; and

(b) what is the amount of black maney detected in these raids?

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE (SHRI VISHWANATH PRATAP SINGH): (a) and (b) During the last one year i.e., from November, 1984 to October, 1985, Income Tax Department conducted 386 searches in Gujarat and seized prima-facie unaccounted assets worth Rs. 2.29 crores approximately.

Raid at the premises of Income Tax Officers

*37. SHRI MUKHTIAR SINGH MALIK:

SHRI RAMCHANDRA BHARADWAJ:

Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the news item which appeared in the 'Hindustan Times' of the 6th October, 1985 to the effect that the Central Bureau of Investigation conducted raids at the premises of several senior officers of the Income Tax Department in the Capital;

(b) if so, what are the names of such senior officers at whose premises the raids were conducted;

(c) what were the assets seized; and

(d) what action Government have taken against them?

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE (SHRI VISHWANATH PRATAP SINGH): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) and (c) Raids were conducted by CBI in October, 1985 at the residences of five officers of the Income Tax Department at Delhi. At this stage it would be inappropriate to disclose the names of the officers whose residences were raided and the assets seized there from, as this would hamper further investigation by C.B.I.

(d) These five officers have since been placed under suspension. Further investigation is being carried out by C.B.I.

Persons registered with Employment Exchanges

*38. SHRI YELLA SESI BHUSHNA RAO: Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the total number of persons registered with the various Employment Exchanges in the country seeking employment was abo 235 lakhs in 1984;

(b) if so, what is the percentage of people out of the above who got employment by the end of the Sixth Five Year Plan 1984-85; and

(c) whether the registration with the Employment Exchanges gives any indication about the number of youngmen unemployed in the country at the end of the Sixth Plan Period and if so, what is the exact number thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR (SHRI T. ANJAIAH): (a) Yes, Sir; the total number of persons registered with various employment exchanges in the country seeking employment was about 235 lakhs at the end of 1984. The State-wise total number of registered persons on the live register of employment exchanges as on 31-12-1984 is given in Annexure.

(b) The percentage of persons placed in employment out of these 235 lakh job-seekers is not available. However, the number of job-seekers placed in employment through employment exchanges during the Sixth Five Year Plan period was 23.2 lakhs. The percentage of these placements to the job-seekers registered with employment exchanges during the same period is 7.4.

(c) All the job-seekers registered with the employment exchanges may not necessarily be unemployed and all unemployed persons may not have registered with the employment exchanges. The registered persons do not indicate exactly the number of unemployed persons in the country.
